

The American Dream of Owning a Mobile Home

Promise Yee, at the time, was a student filmmaker who produced, filmed, and edited “The American Dream of Owning a Mobile Home.” She was drawn to the topic of mobile home communities when she learned there are over a dozen mobile home parks in Oceanside. In the video mobile home owners share their thoughts on home ownership, their mobile home communities, relationship with park owners, and the June 5, 2012 election whereby the issue of Vacancy De-Control had been placed on the ballot.

Although this started as a school project, her film was entered into the 2012 Oceanside International Film Festival and won the Audience Choice Best Student Film award. The video is about 20 minutes in length. Please enjoy.

For a copy of this video, please email the producer at: promise805@hotmail.com

- <http://youtu.be/QKufIzOrjA8>